

The Law of the Harvest

“Don’t be misled; remember that you can’t ignore God and get away with it: a man will always reap just the crop he sows! If he sows to please his own wrong desires, he will be planting seeds of evil and he will surely reap a harvest of spiritual decay and death; but if he plants the good things of the Spirit, he will reap everlasting life that the Holy Spirit gives him. And let us not grow tired of doing what is right, for after a while we will reap a harvest of blessing if we don’t get discouraged and give up.” (Galatians 6:7-9 LRB)

- 1. You always reap much later than you plant.
 - 2. You always reap much more than you plant
 - 3. You always reap in an area that gets your attention
 - 4. Changing crops requires much time and much work
 - 5. Although it is difficult, you can always start planting for a new better harvest!
